

What Other Programs Receive CDBG Funds?

Generally, about half of CDBG funds are used for neighborhood and housing rehabilitation. The rest goes to support numerous public facilities and agencies that serve a variety of social needs.

Community Facilities

- Community Health Clinic
- Lafayette Urban Ministry Homeless Shelter
- Food Finders Food Bank
- Hanna Community Center & Dennis Burton Child Care

Social Services

- Homeless Services
- Healthcare Referral
- Self-Sufficiency Counseling
- Child Care

Historic Preservation

- Long Center for the Performing Arts
- Main Street Façade Renovation Program

Public Improvements

- Sidewalk Replacement
- Street/Alley Reconstruction
- Neighborhood Parks

How Much Does the CDBG Program Invest?

Since the program began in 1975, the total number of CDBG and related program dollars received equals approximately $22.5 million.

Typically, the amount of money allocated through the CDBG and HOME Funding Programs every year equals about $1.5 million.